

TERMS OF USE

Effective Date: 9 August 2026

Synergetic Global LLC (“Synergetic Global”, “we”, “us” or “our”) provides this website for general information about our management consulting and strategic advisory business, capabilities and insights. These Terms of Use govern your access to and use of our website and its content.

By accessing or using this website, you agree to these Terms of Use. If you do not agree, please do not use the website.

1. Use of the Website

You may use this website for lawful, informational and legitimate business purposes. You must not misuse the website, attempt to gain unauthorised access to it or related systems, introduce malicious code, interfere with its operation, use automated tools to scrape or extract content without permission, or use the website in a way that violates applicable law or the rights of Synergetic Global or any third party.

We may change, suspend, restrict or discontinue any part of the website where reasonably necessary, including for maintenance, security or operational reasons.

2. Website Content and No Professional Advice

The content on this website is provided for general information only. It does not constitute, and should not be relied upon as, consulting, legal, financial, tax, accounting, audit, investment, insurance or other regulated professional advice tailored to your circumstances.

Business decisions depend on individual facts and circumstances. No consultant-client or other professional relationship is created merely by visiting the website, reading its content, submitting an enquiry or communicating with us. Any consulting or advisory engagement with Synergetic Global is subject to separate written terms agreed with the client.

Any examples, observations, forecasts, strategies, frameworks or commentary on this website are general in nature and do not guarantee any particular commercial, financial, operational or strategic outcome. Results can vary according to implementation, management decisions, market conditions, available information and other circumstances outside our control.

3. Confidential Information

Please do not submit confidential, commercially sensitive or proprietary information through the website unless appropriate confidentiality arrangements are already in place. Submitting an enquiry does not by itself create a confidential, consultant-client or other professional relationship with Synergetic Global.

4. Accuracy and Availability

We aim to keep website information useful and reasonably current, but we do not guarantee that all content will always be complete, accurate, current or suitable for a particular purpose. Information, market conditions, laws and business practices can change.

The website is provided on an “as available” basis. We do not guarantee uninterrupted access, error-free operation, security, or that the website will be free from viruses, malicious code or other harmful components, or that every technical issue will be corrected immediately.

5. Intellectual Property

Unless otherwise stated, the website and its content - including text, articles, graphics, images, logos, branding, layouts and original materials - are owned by or licensed to Synergetic Global and are protected by applicable intellectual-property laws.

You may view and use website content for your own legitimate informational purposes. You may not reproduce, republish, distribute, modify, commercially exploit, systematically extract, present as your own, or use our content, branding or logo without prior written permission, except where permitted by applicable law. You may also not use our content without permission to train, develop or improve artificial intelligence systems or datasets, or to develop competing publications, products or services.

6. Third-Party Links

Our website may contain links to third-party websites, platforms or resources for convenience or reference. We do not control those third parties and are not responsible for their content, availability, security or practices. A link does not necessarily mean that Synergetic Global endorses the third party, its products, services or views.

7. Limitation of Liability

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, Synergetic Global will not be liable for losses or damages arising solely from your access to, inability to access, or reliance on the general information provided through this website, including losses arising from website interruptions, errors, omissions or third-party links.

Nothing in these Terms excludes or limits any liability that cannot lawfully be excluded or limited. These website Terms do not replace or alter any separate written agreement governing services provided by Synergetic Global to a client.

8. Privacy

Personal data provided through or in connection with the website is handled in accordance with our Privacy Policy and applicable data-protection law.

9. Changes to These Terms

We may update these Terms of Use when our website, business practices or applicable legal requirements change. The current version will be published on the website with its effective date. Your continued use of the website after an update means that the updated Terms will apply to your subsequent use.

10. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

These Terms of Use are governed by the applicable laws of the United Arab Emirates. Subject to any mandatory law that applies otherwise, disputes relating to these Terms or use of the website will be subject to the jurisdiction of the competent courts of the United Arab Emirates.

11. General

If any provision of these Terms is found to be unlawful, invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions will continue to apply. A failure by Synergetic Global to enforce a provision does not waive our right to enforce it later.
